TECH SHOW GIVEN
Cordial Reception
Performances Very Successful—Chorus Was Especially Skillful

Since the days when King Dodoo's and Prince of Pilen Billionth, it has been the custom, say the rule, that every comic opera shall contain at least one royal presence—The Queen of the Canadian idea has two. It has been a tradition that the action take place in the latitude of the HMS“If.” Now, it is that the librettists of the “Galahad” show have not altered the tradition. They have disserted the most tropical of lands where the climates impel the inhabitants to un-casual activity, and the usual of palm-leaf leaves as a love potion. Upon the arrival of the ship there is a certain mooded ship to pieces and some of the picturesque passengers have been swung on the island. The plot begins with a hunt for this island a
