CHALLENGE TO SOPHS OF COURSE XI.

"It doesn't do to be one-sided." So that was why the live ones picked X. Which again is the reason for their baseball team—an all-Cobb layout that is simply itching to sock it to the plumpers.

So, oh you Capt. Taylor! Unless you want your course to sink prematurely into the oblivion of dark and loathsome odors, unless you are willing to bear uncontested the taunts of the cave-dwellers, unless, in a word, you want your bunch to look like "helpers" arise, arise like a loaf of Ferguson's and say no, a thousand times no, say it to infinity, and then dump the limit. And play ball! Next Friday put your Bunsen out early, bid the Doc bye-bye, and hike!

Organizations and societies all over the country are making strenuous efforts to bring about a "safer and saner" Fourth of July. Statistics of accidents and death resulting from the use of explosives are being furnished to newspapers and periodicals and circulated throughout the land. Many suggestions are being made of better ways to celebrate, the holding of public concerts, parades, torchlight processions, etc. As Mayor Fitzgerald of this city said, "It is hardly practicable to take away from the children one form of pleasure without giving them something in its place which they will regard as an equivalent. It looks as though sooner or later King Cannoncracker will be forced to vacate the soft throne he has had in the hearts of American youth."
