Graduation

At 12 o'clock, Tuesday, the candidates for degrees will assemble in the Library, and receive their diplomas.

Gala Day Exercises

About 600 people attended the Graduation Exercises held in the Chapel on Tuesday afternoon. The exercises were conducted by Mr. Bell, who introduced the first marshal, V. Bell, who then took charge of the proceedings. In his speech Mr. Bell laid special emphasis on the point that the class of 1919 will exist as follows:

1. Loyalties and Gentlemen—

This gathering today represents the dual opportunity that the class of 1919 will have to extend to you, its friends, hospitality and spirit of fellowship which it will not be possible for you to share.

2. The spread will be wide and deep, and there will be no personal interests.

3. A number of the students are to be found in

4. The annual dinner will be held this year as usual on Tuesday, and all candidates will take part in the big five-year reunion.

5. The dinner is to be held at 6.30 and to 7.45, and will give an excellent opportunity for men to meet their class-mates under conditions.

6. The program this year will be as follows:
