THERE IS A MEANS TO STUDENTS.

Dr. George W. Tupper has prepared an interesting lecture, the subject of which is "What It Means to Students.

About 400 men are expected to be present. After the dinner, refreshments will be served in the room upstairs and the old Tech songs will be sung.

As this is the first meeting of the new men, a general spirit of good fellowship will be shown, and no class distinctions made. The entire entertainment is free, and every man from all the classes is requested to attend and help

TOMORROW NIGHT

1914 DINNER TOMORROW

Tomorrow evening, at 6.30, the Freshmen Class will hold its initial event, the first 1914 Class Dinner, at the Tech Union. Mr. Schaff, 1909, manager of the dining room, has promised one of the best menus that has ever been drawn up for a class. Last year 206 attended the 1913 dinner, and a larger number than this is expected this year from the Class of 1914.

As the first two speakers, R. H. Ran-ter, General Manager of The Tech, will introduce Dean Burton and Prof. Sedgwick. Dean Burton has always considered this as his opportunity to give the entering class some idea of what the Institute stands for. It is possible in the Un-tion to be less informal than either Hunsingtton Hall or the Roger's office will permit, and it has always proved well worth the closest attention of every one.

Prof. Sedgwick does not come in contrast with a large number of the last-

Is that the way it's done in the good sport, but does no good, and should never be continued to extremes reached in any years.
