SONGS AND CHEERS TO BE USED TONIGHT

No. 1.

THE STEIN SONG.

Words by E. Horney.

Give a cheer then in the skyline

For the rise or the fall

Turn night-time into day-time

With cheer and boy's good cheer!

For it's always fair weather

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

And a good song ringing clear.

Chorus.

And for it's always the weather

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

And a good song ringing clear.

Oh! we'all flark and twenty

When the spring is in the air;

And we've faith and boys a-plenty

And we've life and love to spare;

And it's birds of a feather

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

And a heart without a care.

Chorus.

And it's birds of a feather

When good fellows get together,

With a stein on the table

And a heart without a care.

T. E. C. H. 1887.

No. 2.

DEAR OLD M. I. T.

Words and Music by H. W. Brooks 1897.

The old New England school

Has ting'd the sky's dull gray.

The glory of the sunset

Upon our old grey.

While here beneath our colors,

With hearts that never yield,

Our boys are fighting onward,

Fighting onward from the field.

Chorus.

Fight on boys, we are cheering for you,

For we want you to win today;

Do your best, and all we ask of you

And you're warranty the Red and Gray.

Though the odds may be against you,

Full of sturdy manhood be;

And we'll raise a song of victory

For dear old M. I. T.

Before old Harvard's crimson,

Before the rose of Brown,

Before the green of Dartmouth,

Though Amherst's white and purple

And Harvard's red and yellow,

Our cheer still strong and clear

Will ring across the field.

Chorus.

On the days that are before us,

We gather as of years,

Hailing the dawn of day

The grand old cheers once more.

And when the battle's over,

Then at the close of day,

Once again we'll raise our colors

Victory crowning the Red and Gray.

Chorus.

One hundred and fifty men listened to the addresses of the various social interests made last night in the Union at the annual reception to new men.

W. H. Warner, president of the Christian Association, introduced each speaker with little comments of his own that, coming from one of the notables in the field, was particularly interesting to the guests and their audience.

The first of the speeches were largely attended by Columbia students, who started the meeting with a discussion of the new gymnasium, science fields, and the university. The scheme of points on contests, a more detailed amount of which is to be announced later. He also announced the new Direct, a complete list of which is to be published in the Daily.

The President, who spoke regarding the athletic was Captain Sedgwick 1913 of the track team, and it has been reported by the football team that the athletes are expected to win at Harvard.

Chorus.

We are Happy, Tech is Bell

And we've faith and hope a-plenty

And we'll raise a song of vict'ry

With the sunlight of good cheer I

And we've life and love to spare;

The glory of the sunset

And a heart without a care.

For we want you to win today;

Before old Harvard's crimson,

Victory crowns the Red and Gray.

SONGS AND CHEERS TO BE USED TONIGHT

No. 1.

TAKE ME TO TECH.

Words by J. W. Litchfield 1885.

At the top of Boylston Street

Dressed in my dinkie uniform,

Go, go, go, go, go, go to Tech.

I'm crazy after wrestlers;

I never had enough

It was hard to be dragged away

It was horribly, awfully tough

Go, give me some 'Ology

'Ology, 'Ology, 'Ology, 'Ology

'Going to the grey,

La-la-la-la.

Refrain.

Take me back again on a special train

To the glorious Institute

I yearn for the inspiration

If it's technological Toof!

I shan't the physical, quantized Prof.

And chapel and all that;

But I hope you'll love again to go

On a scientific ride.

Oh, back to the days that were free

Go, go, go, go, go, go to Tech.

In the 'Ology, 'Ology shop

With nothing to do analyze air

Or the differentiation

Of the trigonometric points

Or the constant pi that made me sick

In those happy days of ours.

For Tech for Technology

'Old man's' me, as the title reads

Glorious old 'Ology

'Ology, 'Ology, 'Ology

Refrain.

No. 2.

THE CARDINAL AND THE GRAY.

Words by G. H. Bryant 1907.

Music by H. L. Moody 1907.

The team is out, all singing and shout

We'll show Tech how to win

The men are strong, the spirit long

And now they're digging in.

Go, Tech, go, and cheer them on

That Tech is with them now

Cheer Tech! Cheer Tech! Cheer for victory.

Chorus.

Those cheers flowed in:

Our lay will surely win the day

All shout and sing, all cheer the man

For the Cardinal and the Gray.

With every "T" let your voice and spirit

All shout and sing

Three cheers for Tech!

Cheer Tech! Cheer Tech!

For 'Tech is best and all the rest

And a heart without a care.

For we want you to win today;

Before old Harvard's crimson,

Victory crowns the Red and Gray.
