FALL HANDICAP MEET COMES NEXT SATURDAY

The date for the annual Fall Handicap Meet has been definitely settled for next Saturday, October 20th, at 2:15 P.M. This is the last athletic event of the year, and liberal handicaps are given to all men who have not bought one. All others interested are advised to try to get the best handicap possible in order to win.

The book for entries will be handled by the field and all who want to enter should sign up as soon as possible, in order to give the committee time for arrangements. All entries must be in by 2:00 o'clock and the following events are scheduled: 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 880 yards, mile, two-mile, three-mile, five-mile, 12-mile, 24-mile, 48-mile, half-mile, mile, 100-yard hurdles, 220-yard hurdles, pole vault, broad jump, high jump, long jump, shot, and hammer.

This will be the first event open to holders of university certificates. All those who have not bought one should secure one immediately from any of the members of the different teams. These certificates entitle all the men to attend the meet at the field, except the intercollegiate fields, and include a grandstand seat on Field Day costs one dollar, admission to all the other events for the men taking this trip will largely depend on the number of those taking part.

There will be a Hare and Hound run at Wakefield today. The train leaves the North Station at 3:15, and returns at 4:15. The track will be about twenty miles long.

The Neps and Kodiaks will meet on the track, and the two teams will race against each other. The Kodiaks will be favored to win, and the score will be decided by a very close finish.

A motorcycle club is to be formed at Stanford. The position of chairman of the junior class at Yale is now open.

Conditions in Tibet have been the subject of much discussion throughout the country.

Conditions in Tibet are arousing much interest. A few years ago Colombo was a little known place in the southern part of India. Now, however, it has become a center of attention for the British government. The situation is very serious, and the British are taking steps to strengthen their position in the region.

The British government has been forced to take action in order to protect their interests in the region. The Tibetans are very restless, and there is a great deal of friction between the two countries.
