INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF APPLIED CHEMISTRY.

Newly Organized Society includes Many Noted Tech Men.

An International Congress of Applied Chemistry which will hold meetings in Washington and New York in the fall of 1912, has just been organized with a number of prominent Tech men holding important positions. Professor P. T. Dodds, of the University of Kansas, is vice-president of the section on analytical chemistry. H. B. Littles, is president of the section on cellulose and starch. L. P. Kinnicutt, has entire charge of the section in sanitation and sewage. Professor William H. Wills, head of the research laboratory of industrial chemistry at the Institute, is president of the section on electrical chemistry.

It is stated that this congress is the most important convention and gathering of workers in the sciences ever held in America. Men whose names have been famous by their great discoveries or researches in the realm of science will be present from all countries of the earth. The last congress was held in London, England.
