was the exposition of wind pressure formulas and the directions for using them. The following values of K in the pressure formula: P = KV² when P = (Continued from Page 1.) became a member of the first fast

For cambered planes (1:12) the lift and drift coefficients are the following:

(Continued from Page 1.)