Subject Will Be Recent Eucharistic Congress to be Held in Montreal Last Month.

The Catholic Club will meet Wednesday evening, November 9th, in the Union, at 4:15 P. M. Following the new program outlined for this year, supper will be served at 6 o'clock in the upper dining room, after which a social meeting will take place. For Wednesday evening the club has secured Rev. Most Rev. Twomey for speaker. Father Twomey will be one of the Eucharistic Congress which was held in Montreal last month.

This congress, which lasted a week and over which Cardinal Vannutelli presided, started the Catholic Church in America, and was attended by representatives from all nations. Over a hundred archbishops and bishops, together with thousands of priests, took part in the proceedings and ceremonies, and on the biggest day 100,000 people were present. Visitors in Montreal from all parts of the world. The after-meeting, the greatest Roman Catholic assembly in America, and greatest Catholic erasure ever expected from the work it undertook.

PARKER AND KERR WIN TOURNAMENT DOUBLES

Fall Tennis Tournament Nearly Finished—Four More Matches to Come.

Only one match is left to be played off before the semi-finals will be completed in the Fall Tennis Tournament. This match, which is between Rankin and Haskell, will probably be played some time during this week, leaving the finals to be played off Saturday if the semi-finals are completed before that date. Woodward will play the winner of the match between Haskell and Haskell, and Parker will play Lawton. The winners of these matches will then play for the championship of the Fall Tournament. Parker and Kerr are the leading doubles, defeating Woodward and Haskell in three sets, 6-3, 6-2, and 6-0.

There has been only one change in the doubles ranking, as follows: Parker 1, Coviell 2, Haskell 3, Woodward 4, Kerr 5, Reid 6. Nothing definite has yet been decided in regard to spring games. The results of the date are as follows:

Preliminary round:
T. L. Little defeated G. W. White, 7-5, 3-6, 6-0; R. R. Rankin defeated R. V. Dar, 6-3, 6-2, 2-6; P. Kerr defeated W. M. Wells, 6-1, 6-1; T. B. Parker defeated T. C. Fisher, 6-1, 6-0.

First round:
C. R. Woodward defeated L. B. Schwartz, 6-3, 6-1; L. B. Duke defeated L. C. Perks, 6-4, 6-1, 6-2; R. T. Haskell defeated W. E. Glancy, 6-3, 6-1; C. R. Woodward defeated L. T. Little, 6-0, 6-1; S. B. Law defeated T. B. Parker, 6-0, 6-2; A. A. Booth defeated K. V. Dey, 6-1, 6-2; S. L. Leary defeated C. R. Woodward, 6-3, 6-2.

Second round:

Two thousand l'axi-Cab Drivers Aid in Attempt to Tie Up City Traffic.

The labor conditions in New York are, indeed, in a very bad way, with the striking of some two thousand l'axi-cab drivers creating a situation for satisfactory arbitration in anything but hopeful. There is at present but little quietness that in the next few days an attempt will be made to tie up the entire wheel traffic of New York. The strikes which may ensue may be of a patriotic, though no group of workers may be more patriotic, than that of the craftsmen who should be ready to press some claims against the owner.

Vine-Presidential Hoffman of the teamsters andTeamster- Unions of the various manufacturing companies. The demands formulated by the l'axi-cab drivers are the recognition of their union, a twelve-hour day, and a wage of seventy-five cents.

The strike leader of to-day that a general strike will be inevitable. There is no case of any serious negotiations, and it was expected yesterday that the generalloom of the teamsters would meet to decide on the general strike. This was expected to be a general strike. Some violence was reported, in several parts of the city, but nothing which seemed to show any very hard feeling on the part of the drivers.
