COUNT TOLSTOI SAID TO BE AT DEATH’S DOOR

FRESHMAN DINNER TOMORROW NIGHT

Informal Dinner Will Take Place in Plush Outdoor Banquet

TO BE HELD AT UNION.

Professors Burton, Talbot, Wedgwood and Blackstein Will Be the Speakers.

The Freshman dinner tonight is to be the beginning of a departure from former Freshman dinners. It is not a banquet, but quite an informal affair, and is to be the first of a series of event-dinners which the class will hold during the year. While not formally decided upon, this plan has met with most favor from those of the class who have expressed themselves. It will be put before the class as a proposition.

This series of dinners is planned with the idea that an inexpensive ban- quet can be the occasion at which a large number of the class are brought together in an informal way. The number that have returned up at the Gym for practice in Large Squad Practices Every After- noon at Gym.

In the early sporing the out- patients will be treated, and the attempted suicide of his de- voted wife. It was afterward learned that the Count had voluntarily left home to end his days as a hermit in the Caucasus mountains. Before he had proceeded many miles he was overcome with delirium, and now lies in a miserable little hut near a flat station, with a raging fever. It is reported that his wife was miles away, dying of a broken heart.
