FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1910.

The Tech is in receipt of a letter from J. N. Stephenson, 1909, a former editor of the paper and member of the class of 1880. The letter is addressed to the proper department.

We note by a Philadelphia paper that Mr. R. L. Dodge, 1910, while at work with a Bell telephone inspector in that city, was seized by two of the company's detectives on the complaint of a householder that he was a suspicious character. Mr. Dodge was released with apologies when the inspector with whom he was working appeared on the scene.

The State Universities of Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee and Texas, have organized a pentagonal debating league.

Football men at the University of Oregon carry a demijohn of pure water on their football trips.

The Y. M. C. A. at Kansas fed 800 men at their Holloween banquet. Two hundred gallons of cider were provided.

At the Senior smoker held at Wisconsin, the feature of the evening was a tenor solo by a Boer from South Africa.
