W. Tupper and Mr. J. I. B. Larned, the following will be the speakers:

The general subject which guests some of the speakers of the dinner at 6.30 in the small dining evening. The general subject which charged for upper berths in sleeping cars twenty per cent. This offer was opposed by attorney-generals of four States, on the ground that the cut in price was insufficient. One of them stated that twenty per cent reduction did not represent the difference in service between upper and lower berths. Two railroads opposed the offer on the plea that the reduction was too small. These were the Great Northern and the Chicago, Milwau-

The purpose of the T. C. A. dinner preceding the speaking is to bring those men interested personally in contact with the speakers. They will be glad to talk individually with the men at the dinner, as there is plenty of opportunity for social service work in and around Boston which the T. C. A. hopes to take up, the speakers can give advice to the men. It is expected that there will be a fair attendance at the dinner, and as it is the beginning of the active work of the Association this spring, all men intending to join it should be present.
