Faculty have also been generous in departments. This is the most certain improvements in the various institutional power, the support and interest in the Union possible, and from time to time dent social centre, they have raised Walker Memorial Fund of $125,501.97 in the Institute contribute each year largely toward its financial success. During view. The Alumni, members of the of the Institute shows a most encouraging interest in the growing interest in wrestling in the institution. The candidates were urged to come out and a meeting was called for the election of a captain and manager. Owing to a serious illness in Coach Mathes' family and his subsequent inability to be present at the initial practice of the wrestling squad, no formal meeting was held. It has been decided to postpone the election until the coach is able to attend.

At the present time twelve men have signified their intention of taking up the sport, while about ten more are interested, who at present find it impossible to come out regularly. The following men are reporting to the gymnasium at least twice a week for wrestling practice:

R. H. North .................... 160
P. H. Reckard ............. 141
R. Smiley-Martin ........... 140
A. H. Means ................... 125

There are many men at Tech who would like to come out for wrestling and learn something about it. Who refrain from doing so because they have never had any coaching or experience. In this they are making a great mistake. It is a matter of saving a few square inches of skin at each practice reg.

About ten days ago The Tech published a short article which mentioned the good progress in wrestling at the Institute. The candidates are working hard, although it is impossible to come out regularly. The following candidates are showing up well in the various events, and all the contestants are working hard, although very few shotguns, cutters, and pole vaulters have reported.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1910.

The annual report of the Treasurer of the Institute shows a most encouraging condition from one point of view. The Alumni, members of the Freshman and other classes, are working hard, although very few shotguns, cutters, and pole vaulters have reported. The team to represent the class will be selected from those who show up well in the Freshman track meet, which will probably be held January 7, so any one intending to enter should not delay in reporting at once. A practice schedule will be arranged for the team, and their first taste of competition will be in the meet against the Sophs, February 4. A meet will probably be arranged with the strong Boston English High School team.
