FRESHMAN MEETING HELD YESTERDAY

ering of the Freshman class in Huntington Hall yesterday was not very large. The absence of the secretary of the class prevented the reading of the minutes. The Constitution Committee had prepared a report of their investigations, and this report included the adoption of the constitution of the class of 1912, but with four or five amendments. This report was acteped.

port of the financial standing of the class, and both he and President Kraemer urged the payment of class dues by those who have not already done so. Mr. Owen announced that shortly he would appoint a man in each section of the class whom he could reach easily to look after the business of the class in his section.

pared with outstanding bills against the class, makes it the duty of every Freshman to pay his dues right away.
President Kraemer pointed out also that there was really a scarcity of men out for basketball and track work. More men would be welcomed.

Treasurer Owen gave a report of the mid-year examinations, was held. The which is really dependent upon the price set, and the date. The dembers were not very
