CHRISTMAS EVE PARTY
GIVEN FOR STUDENTS
President and Mrs. Macalurin Entertain Students Who Remained in Boston.

HUNDRED AND FIFTY PRESENT.

Musical Program Rendered and Gifts Distributed to the Guests.

Those students who come to the Isat est from distant parts of the country, as well as those who come from foreign lands, do not look forward to the Christmas vacation with the same anticipation as do the men who come from places nearer to Boston, because they cannot get to their homes and look forward to only a week of lone-tliness. To help instill a spirit of Christmas cheer, President and Mrs.
Macalurin held on each Christmas eve a reception to the strangers.

This year about a hundred and fifty men gathered at the home of the President, and a most pleasant evening was spent. Interwoven with Tech songs, there was an entertainment that was spent. Interspersed with a reception to the strangers.

After the program had been rendered, there was an enjoyable illustrated lecture on his stories told until the meeting was called to order, and then Mr. F. H.

Hunter of Boston gave a short but enjoyable illustrated lecture on his trip to the White Mountains.

It was voted that on each Friday, beginning with the one following the meeting, the Alumni should eat lunch

P. M. This plan of holding Tech luncheons has been tried in several cities, and has proved a very popular idea. The Boston Alumni are also very enthusiastic about the matter.

It was also announced that the annual banquet would be held on Wednesday evening, January 3, 1911, at Hotel Somerville. The subject of the evening will be "Efficiency." The speakers are as follows: Mr. A. P.
Bosin, 1892; President Dr. Macalurin, Mr. W. W. Perkins, of the firm of J. P.
Morgan & Co., of New York; Mr. F.
W. Taylor, Efficiency Engineer, Philadelphia; Mr. L. K. Rourke, 1890, supersintendent of the Boston streets department, and Dr. A. A. Noyes, 1886.
