The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much desired here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.

The Technology Women's Association has chosen well in selecting for its president, Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, 1972. It is now about forty years since Mrs. Richards, who had just graduated from Vassar, applied for admission to the Institute, and after some delay was admitted to the first woman student then here. She has served the Institute and mankind faithfully and well, and this honor at the hands of her sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute. The gift that this so-sister Technologians is a much deserved tribute.