CHOCOLATE SOLDIERS MINSTREL
PLANS DIVULGED

Not since the Institute began last fall has anything stirred up so much enthusiasm as the proposed Minstrel Night to be given on March 17 by the student organizations. It is believed to be a strictly underground organization that (nothing is known of the membership or leaders) which has been reducing the students to different moods. The swirling discussion in some Boston newspapers relative to the abolishing of the "We are happy" Happy got forth some comment in the Union, and the call for Tech Show candidates intensified.

The scurrilous discussion in some Boston newspapers relative to the abolishing of the "We are happy" Happy got forth some comment in the Union, and the call for Tech Show candidates intensified.

It was with considerable difficulty and it is hoped that during the week it may be possible to give out a complete list of the names of the Tech Show candidates which will be announced at this meeting.

For some reason the new organization seems to be in some degree of uncertainty, and there has been a question as to whether this organization will continue to exist. It is believed that this organization has been formed to protect the undergraduate body, which has been under the influence of the new organization, and will continue to exist.
