ALL "CENTRAL'S" FAULT

Any way Chocolate Soldiers will Hold Show in H. H., instead of Union.

Editorial note:- Owing to lack of time on the part of the night editor we are printing merely our acoustiphone record of this conversation.

"Hello-is this Bates?"

"Yes, who's that?"

"The Advance Agent."

"Who?"

"The Advance Agent."

"Well who in time is he?"

"Why do you say you ever read that paper which you are General Manager?"

"Oh so you're the chap that's writing all this dope about the Chocolate Minstrrels are you?"

"Yes that's me, and say I've got some good stuff for Thursday's issue and I want you to be sure to leave me plenty
of space on the second page, second column-see?"

"All right-I'll do that, but who do you think you are anyway ordering the General Manager of Tech Tech around juslike you would order an errand boy?"

"Come now old man, don't get sassy; you should be mighty glad that I'm sending this dope to the Chicago Min-
strrels are you?"

"Yes that's me, and say I've got some good stuff for Thursday's issue and I want you to be sure to leave me plenty
of space on the second page, second
column-see?"

"Yes, my name is "

"Yes, my name is "

"To late Central had broken the connection, or else the Advance Agent had hung up his receiver, and so the absurdity of mystery still surrounds the "Ad Man" of the now famous "Chocolate Minstrels."
