Selling Saturday afternoon at the Gym.

On Saturday afternoon at the Gym the second game of the inter-collegiate basketball series will be played between the Freshman and the Sophomore. The first game of the series was an easy victory for the heavy 1913 team but it was played between the heavy 1914. It was played before the Dartmouth game on Washington's Birthday. It was played before the Sophomore who has lost one valuable man from their line-up in "Larry" Hart, who was injured in the first game and will not play any more this season. The Sophomore will be started promptly at three o'clock and there will be a "bachelor" tax of one cent (fifteen cents) on all who enter. The Freshmen are promising all kinds of speed for this coming game and they seem to be sure of success. The Sophomore has lost one valuable man from their line-up in "Larry" Hart, who was injured in the first game and will not play any more this season. The game will be started promptly at three o'clock and there will be a "bachelor" tax of one cent (fifteen cents) on all who enter. The referee for this game will probably be Al Kemrick, 1912. He has officiated a number of times for the Freshman team and has given satisfaction.

The line up:—

1913
McCarthy, L. F.
Mather, (Capt.) r.f.
Murdock, c.
Capon, l. b.
Hudson, r. h.

1914
Tirrell, r. b.
Cambridge, l. b.
Henderson, c.
Ruff, (Capt.) r. f.
Ceverly, l. f.

Come early to the Hop to-night.

Too bad the Minstrel tickets have so much trouble getting offered.

When the man who spilled the bottle of ink in the drawing room was asked if he was preparing for a bath, he replied, "No, I'm getting ready for the Chocolate Soldiers Show." A clue, maybe.

Cross country men out to-day for the Hare and Hound meeting.

Did the soldiers notice at drill Wednesday the Major's golden shoes?

Much music in the Union last night.

Plans have been completed for the improvement of the campus at the Syracuse University.

In a debate before Yale Union on the question, "Resolved, That Yale is still 20 years behind Harvard," the affirmative won.
