There has been some criticism in the columns of The Tech about the attitude between the Tech activities. The committee and the Chocolate Soldier Management have shown the rate of one cent a copy.

In contrast, the co-operation in regard to conflicts between different District and outside of the Union yesterday. It was remarked after the military hop, "Well, boys, it's a fine night and I hope you will all enjoy yourselves." The edges of the ribs for about 3 inches are pliable; when extended and open a greater spread is afforded than the ordinary kind, and the women will not break their feathers.

TUESDAY MARCH 14, 1911

Don't forget that the seven weeks reports are due soon.

Tech Show posters will soon be out.

Another clew! Two Chocolate Soldiers outside the Union yesterday.

A reliable old student dressed in 35 Rogers the other day. A fellow who was very careless got his legions caught between a sprocket and chain, he was drawing.

It was reported after the military hop, that it was not golden's that glitter there.
