THE TECH WILL HOLD RECEPTION

A typical college poster full of interest and action, it is one that every man should want to have. The size and flexibility of this year's poster make it easy to send through the mail, especially in the mailing tubes, which the Show has provided. It is on sale at the poster.

The entire poster is done in black block. The central figure is that of a general dancing girl set off effectively upon his yellow background. The graceful noon during Junior Week. The poster has been designed so that it may be easily put into the mailing tubes, which the Show has provided. It is on sale at the poster.

The Tech Show Poster, which will be the official poster of the Tech Show this year, has been designed and priced by the Architectural Society.
