MUSICAL NIGHT
WEDNESDAY MAY 13

Final Postponement Necessitated

MUSICAL NIGHT MASS MEETING AT ONE O'CLOCK UNION COMMITTEE

VOL. XXX. NO. 139 BOSTON, MASS., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 1911 PRICE TWO CENTS

Everybody at Union dining-room has also been postannounced in accord with the date for Musical Night as it is expected that almost all of the men that come will be ladies. The entertainment will be of the highest class and what is more important student activities. Ladies Night at the Union dining-room has also been postponed to accord with the date.

Everybody, at Huntington Hall to-day at one o'clock in the biggest student meeting of the year and most of the ladies will appear in a characteristic manner. From the most classical music. The singing requires special mention. The show business of the Tech is going to sing and play some Chinese hits of the Chocolate Soldier Minstrels that attracted so much attention in this city last year. The officers will assume their duties directly and will make all preparations for active work next year. It is hoped that the Association next year, assisted by the services of a graduate secretary, will devote his entire time to the work.

MUSICAL NIGHT

OFFICERS OF THE DAY APPOINTED YESTERDAY

At the annual election of officers of the Technology Association, which took place at the meeting yesterday afternoon, the following men were elected: Charles L. Barrows, president; Chauncey T. White, vice-president; John Hall '22, secretary and treasurer, Hamilton Merrill '12.

The officers of the Association, directly and will make all preparations for active work next year. It is hoped that the Association next year, assisted by the services of a graduate secretary, will devote his entire time to the work.

CIVIL ENGINEERS' ANNUAL BANQUET

The New York and New Haven R. R. have given a very good rate for the trip of a dollar and a half per person. That we can sign up a train tell. This special train will run at any time that the bunch to think of meeting? Well, the track team is the special train that Tech men have ever taken with the Institute. The members of the committee has recommended that the Institute Committee. The members of this committee will look out very closely to find out who the offenders are, and is hoped that this warning will be sufficient to deter men from breaking the rules of propriety.

Attendance at the dining-room is continuing very good, and so likewise are the cash receipts. Because of the postponement of Musical Night as it is expected that almost all of the men that come will be ladies. The entertainment will be of the highest class and what is more important student activities.

Dr. J. A. Rockwell
Speaker at the Mass Meeting

Everybody, at Huntington Hall to-day at one o'clock in the biggest student meeting of the year. The principal business will be the discussion of the rough-house that has lately broken out in the Union. The committee has recommended that the Institute Committee. The members of this committee will look out very closely to find out who the offenders are, and is hoped that this warning will be sufficient to deter men from breaking the rules of propriety.

CIVIL ENGINEERS' ANNUAL BANQUET

Hold in Copley Square Hotel, Friday May Fifth — Inviting List of Speakers

On Friday evening, May fifth, the I. T. Civil Engineering Society will hold their Annual Meeting and Banquet at the Copley Square Hotel.

OFFICERS OF THE DAY APPOINTED YESTERDAY

At the annual election of officers of the Technology Association, which took place at the meeting yesterday afternoon, the following men were elected: Charles L. Barrows, president; Chauncey T. White, vice-president; John Hall '22, secretary and treasurer, Hamilton Merrill '12. The officers of the Association, directly and will make all preparations for active work next year. It is hoped that the Association next year, assisted by the services of a graduate secretary, will devote his entire time to the work.

The following were elected: Chauncey T. White, president; Charles L. Barrows, vice-president; John Hall '22, secretary and treasurer, Hamilton Merrill '12. The officers of the Association, directly and will make all preparations for active work next year. It is hoped that the Association next year, assisted by the services of a graduate secretary, will devote his entire time to the work.