traced the history of the Show and introduced in that way, Mr. Rowe, another old Show man. Mr. Rowe brought out the point that the Tech Show is not a club affair, but a Tech affair. The history of the Show was most commendable, he said.

Publicity manager, Woelbing, expressed his gratification in the record of this year’s Show.

Business manager, Lenarts stated that ‘‘Freemond Frenzied” cleared about $500. Mr. Blachter kept the guests in a gale of laughter with his inimitably humorous remarks. Dolly Carty, he said, had almost torn his family ties asunder.

Then followed a real old, hot old time in which all the “ladies and gentlemen” took part.

M. I. T. CHESS CLUB TO MEET HARVARD

Next Saturday evening at seven o’clock the M. I. T. Chess Club will meet the Harvard Chess Club at Cambridge in a five board chess match. The Institute team will be selected by Milton Karp 1912 the president of the club. As Harvard has a large number of very skillful and experienced players to choose from the prospects for a Tech Victory are very bright. When the final choices are made the names of those who are to play in the tournament will be published in The Tech.

SOPHOMORESLOSE BASEBALL GAME

Saturday afternoon, the Sophomore baseball team suffered a bad defeat at the hands of the Cushing Academy team at Ashburnham. The final score was 7 to 0.

TECH UNDERGRADUATE IS PLAYRITE

Somerville, Saturday evening was the scene of a very interesting little play given by the Tufts Delta Upsilon fraternity of the local High School, written by Mr. Tracy Davis, an undergrad at MIT. Mr. Davis is the sole writer of the play, music and lyrics.
