Being chosen from among the instructing staff of the Civil Engineering department of the Institute, Morse W. Rew, assistant in this course, will accompany Charles W. Eaton on a three weeks' trip to the Panama Canal. Mr. Eaton is a former Institute student and a benefactor of the civil engineering department. Mr. Eaton recently visited the Institute with the intention of choosing one of the civil engineering department to accompany him on a trip to the Canal and Mr. Rew was chosen. Mr. Rew will have all expenses paid. He left last night at mid-night.

Mr. Rew is well liked and esteemed by his associates and highly thought of by all his friends and it is hoped that his trip will be enjoyable.

Mr. Rew was interviewed last evening by a large number of friends, and at the time of the departure seemed in the best of spirits over his good fortune.

Mr. Rew's plans are not known as yet but he will return about May 29, in time for the final examination. He will at that time have much of interest to relate of his experiences.
