COMPETITIVE PRIZE DRILL TO BE HELD MAY 19

President Maclaurin to review Battalions at drill of the Year

ADMISSION, 25 CENTS

Banner and dinner to be given to winning Company. Individual Drills

On Friday evening, May the eleventh the competitive prize drill and final battle will be held in the intramural arena. Everyone interested in an individual and a decision as to the best drilled company will be announced after the drill.

In addition to company drills, there will be a competitive drill with four men. Each four will be selected from each company and will be individually advanced the same number of times as the company is scored. The four chosen will be announced after the drill.

At the drill last Wednesday, the company commanders voted for candidates for the individual competitive drill. Many candidates were interviewed and different methods were taken by the officers to select the most eligible candidates.

President Maclaurin will review the battalions on the evening of the drill, while the other members of the faculty and the seniors of the field will be present. The companies will be present in good condition, and will be well dressed for the occasion.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF THE TECH FRIDAY EVENING
