NEXT YEAR'S OFFICERS ANNOUNCED

An Excellent Dinner and Interesting Speeches Contribute to the Success of the Affair

The chemical society finished a successful year with a banquet at the Hotel Plaza. An excellent dinner and several interesting speakers made the affair a great success. At the close of the evening the results of the election for next year’s officers announced were: B. Pope, Jr., V.P.; C. H. C. Van Hoff, Treasurer; and R. B. Travers, Secretary. Following this, Mr. A. B. Little, well known as a paint manufacturer, took charge of the chemical engineers more efficiently. He was to have put the ban on basketball, have
