The Freshman football team, which was organized before the meeting of his little spell of jolly, that he had taken as a criterion.

Mr. O'Brien was nominated by proxy for the forty-five men for the Freshman Class as a whole who were expected to turn out today Wednesday afternoon at 4:20 at the Field.

Mr. O'Brien, manager for the Freshman Team... the reception Friday.

Three Hundred and Sixty-Five men during their school life at the Union.

Mr. O'Brien, manager for the Freshmen, has a fine football team, and which was worked out so thoroughly, by the 1913 Tech, that not even the best Timmen, the Tech football team, who are entirely new. It is easy I don't start looking for a good place to eat, for it has already been found for you. Your address is of Trinity Place, and they call it "The Tech Union." And the most valuable institutions, the one which we can afford to lose least of in the person of Mr. L. R. Talbot~ the chairmen of the standing committees of the Association will soon be appointed and will be announced at the reception Friday.

The Freshman Class as a whole will get the habit, and then don't break the men who have eaten in the Union will be at its best.

The reception to new men will be the first of a series of monthly meetings intended to bring all men of the Institute to attend this, the first gathering of the season. In this way, they will have a fine opportunity to meet the men who are doing things here and get an inside knowledge of some of the activities well as to meet their own classmates and learn to know them. The tickets are now on sale and the intention is that those lucky men who go should purchase them before Friday morning, as the tickets will be made with the Steward for the right number. The price is fifty cents, and surely the dinner and the good time are well worth this small sum.
