The TECH
Published daily, except Sunday, during the college year by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The TECH covered a wide range of topics, including news of the day, campus events, and academic matters. It provided an outlet for students to express their thoughts and opinions on various subjects, from academic matters to social and political issues. The TECH was an important part of campus life, reflecting the interests and concerns of the student body.

For the full contents of this issue, please refer to the original newspaper or archives.