Second Football Victory For the Braves One of Skill Against Princeton

By overcoming twenty-three of the best of Harvard's football men at the Stadium Saturday afternoon, the little band of Indians from Pennsylvania won a clean, decisive victory, with a score of 18 to 15. Showing a superiority over the Crimson in every department of the game, and above all in a display of a spirit of sportsmanship and decency that was sadly lacking in their opponents, the Carlisle men were backed throughout the contest, not only by the feminine supporters, but also by chemical engineers of the people in the stadium.

As the starting signal was made by Coach Haughton sent in a team of scouts, which was said to be as able and as potent as the best team that he had sent in, the boys were able to save the ball to the 20 yard line and carry it to the 12 yard line. Meanwhile, the Indians showed poor work in their center and ball handling, and the Harvard men carried the ball around to the men in the left, down field. The Harvard men took the ball down the field and showed speed of ball handling. The Harvard men carried the ball around to the men on the right side of the field, and then to the right side of the line. The Harvard men carried the ball to the 20 yard line and then made a goal.
