To the Editor of THE TECH:

I am not a Harvard man, and therefore "my withers are unwrung," either by the result of the game Saturday or the report in Monday's issue of THE TECH. I have understood, however, that THE TECH claims to be non-partisan, and therefore take the liberty of remarking that it is a violation of neutrality to publish an article so full of strong personal feeling. I may add that it is hardly politic, as the Harvard men who are readers of THE TECH are, and must be, much offended by the lines of the report.

Very truly,

Arlo Bates.
