EXAM SCHEDULE THE TECH TO-MORROW

BOSTON, MASS., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1911
PRICED TWO CENTS

FINE ADDRESS BY SECRETARY RINDGE

Benefits of Industrial Service Mutual — Enthusiasm

Elsewhere.

Mr. Rindge, who addressed the T. C. meeting in the Union yesterday afternoon, reports great success for the Youth Club of the Institute.

He said that there were many young men who did not speak English and who were not familiar with any language but their own.

He told of several instances of educated foreigners who did not speak English and who were unable to get into the school because they were not able to understand the language spoken by the teachers.

Mr. Rindge said that he was very glad to have the opportunity of addressing the students of the Institute and

telling them about the advantages of learning a second language.

He said that many young men who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they would be much better off if they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.

Mr. Rindge said that he was

very glad to have the

opportunity of addressing the

students of the Institute and

telling them about the

advantages of learning a

second language.

He said that many young men

who did not speak English

were unable to get work in America and that they

would be much better off if

they could speak English.