LATIN AMERICAN NIGHT OF
COSMOPOLITAN CLUB WELL ATTENDED

Many Interesting Talks Given on Recent Mexican Revolution--Pres. and Mrs. Maclaurin Were Present

Last Saturday evening the Latin-American section of the Cosmopolitan Club entertained the members in the commencement of the Christmas season. The meeting was attended by a large number of guests, including President and Mrs. Maclaurin and relatives. Dean and Mrs. Burton and several Latin-Americans in Boston. The large attendance was due to the high quality of the entertainment as well as the high quality of the food. The most impressive item was the selection of music, which ranged from classical to folk, with some being highly unusual and others being quite novel.

The next speaker of the evening was the President of the Spanish Club of Boston, Fray Jose Luis Lozano, who discussed the history and culture of Spain. He spoke of the nation's rich heritage, its history of revolution and its current state. Lozano's talk was very well received and appreciated by the audience.

The final speaker of the evening was Mr. Hernandez, who gave a talk on the Mexican Revolution. He discussed the events leading up to the Revolution, the role of the United States, and the impact of the Revolution on Mexico. His talk was very engaging and informative, leaving the audience with a better understanding of this important historical event.

The meeting concluded with a delicious buffet dinner, which was served by the club's committee. The atmosphere was lively and enjoyable, with guests socializing and sharing stories. The evening was truly a memorable one, and the attendees were left with a newfound appreciation for the rich cultural heritage of Latin America.
