MR. MULREADY WILL TALK TO CATHOLICS

Important Report of Dance Committee to Be Heard.

On Wednesday evening, January 3, the Catholic Club will hold its first meeting of the new year. Mr. Edward Mulready, a member of the committee, will speak. Mulready will be supernumerary in the Union at 6 P. M. The club is fortunate in having Mr. Mulready to address the members on this occasion. As chief probation officer of the courts of Massachusetts, Mr. Mulready has come into close contact with the criminal world and its different types of men. This class of people are little known to the ordinary human being, especially the parents of the ordinary human being, especially the parents of children. The special interest of Mulready has been solving numerous questions in this department. To make his position clear, Mr. Mulready has had to appear before different bodies of men at different times. The success which he has achieved speaks well for his com- mand of the English language and his ability to handle it effectively. He tells to the club one interesting story after another, which is very entertaining.

The committee wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.

The committee also wishes to bring to the members of the society those whom they consider, without much exception, are the best. They are called the dance committee, which will be delivered at the meeting, will be of interest to all the members. The chairman, G. W. Waller, has had every man on the committee working over the points which have been presented. He has something to show for his work and promises to make a highly interesting report out of an unexpected development.