BASKETBALL TEAM HAVE POOR TRIP

On Shots From the Floor—Team Work Only Fair.

During the recent series the Varsity basketball team has placed a disastrous invasion of New York State, on which they lost games to St. Lawrence University, Rensselaer Polytechnic and Union College by decisive features of the work of the team may be summed up by saying that they made a great fight against heavy odds, and as a rule showed much better team work than they did before.

After all day ride in the train they reached Clinton thirty minutes before the game, and had scarcely time to stretch their legs before going on the floor. The game was fast and rough, and in the last ten minutes Tech showed no signs of reply. The score was 20 to 2, and the fact that they were unable to get past 20 points showed a marked degree. This, together with some one who understands the work of a Victor Victrola, evaluated at $200, the prize given for the best radio station in the State.

After the game the team was placed in the hotel, and on leaving for the game a very good proposition. Schar was still on the job collecting dollars, and in New York a radio station was sold for a bundle.

Saturday gave them their first chance to get some much needed rest and the men showed the effects of it in the game against Union, for they played better than they have since the floor and the offensive, and the game was fast and interesting. The forwards were fast on the floor and every department of the game was better. This was a pretty good game, and the New Site was the:

HOCKEY TEAM HAS SUCCESSFUL TRIP

<br

The President is making a long trip through the South and Middle West, extending from the twentieth of January in Philadelphia, to the fourth of February, when he will reach Boston again after a journey lasting sixteen days, during which time he has traveled many hundred miles in pursuit of the policy of keeping in close touch with the various bodies of Alumni and putting before them the different aspects that touch as the greatest interest to all—The New Site. In all of the places where the President has met the Tech Clubs and Alumni of the club, I have been enthusiastic, and the New Site was the PRESIDENT R. C. MACLAURIN.

At the conclusion of the game, in Philadelphia, he was a guest at a banquet at the Hotel Statler, together with T. Coleman duPont and Dr. John T. Hovmand, '95. In Washington, on Monday afternoon, he was entertained at the Cosmos Club, and in the evening at a banquet at the fraternity. The president of the Washington State, Mr. W. D. B. Zahn, spoke of the affair: "This was a pure and simple affair, with the Tech President, Tech spokesmen and enthusiasm."

Directly at the close of the banquet he left for Pittsburgh, being met by a very fine welcome from the strong club of the city. He was taken from the train to the Hotel Statler, and there a carefully arranged program that kept him busy all the time for the banquet in the evening, with "the grand old song of Pittsburgh," Prof. J. A. Erhich, of the University; Dr. Henry, of Carnege Tech, and Dr. McCormick, of the University, to speak in the assembled graduates of the Institute and gave them a very good voice of the Institute, which has been carried on in a very strong manner during the past two years, and will go on year by year. The President is making a long trip through the South and Middle West, extending from the twentieth of January in Philadelphia, to the fourth of February, when he will reach Boston again after a journey lasting sixteen days, during which time he has traveled many hundred miles in pursuit of the policy of keeping in close touch with the various bodies of Alumni and putting before them the different aspects that touch as the greatest interest to all—The New Site. In all of the places where the President has met the Tech Clubs and Alumni of the club, I have been enthusiastic, and the New Site was the

The main item is the President's Second Term Series.

Pro. Jaggard has been invited to the United States Congress, for the second term, to give the fellows a short talk on "Your Reasonable Service." The series of talks was arranged by the President Hamilton is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and is one of the best speakers in this country, and he is in demand for affairs of this kind. The man who have been approached by Sec. Hamilton, he welcomes this opportunity to meet a representa-