THE TECH

COMUNICATION.

1914.

Next week the important election of the 1914 Technique Electoral Committee will take place. This committee is composed of twenty-five men, who elect the board for next year’s Technique. Only men who have paid their class dues will be elected to this committee, but to give every man a fair chance, the names of all regular members of the class, whether or not they have paid their dues, and all unclassified students who have not yet paid his dues, must leave his name at the Cage on or before Wednesday, if his name is to appear on the ballot.

This is the most important election for 1914 this term, and every man should see that his name is on the ballot and that his dues are paid, that he may be eligible for the committee. T. H. GUETHING, President, 1914.
