TO PRACTICE GRAND MARCH FOR HOP

Committee Also Desires Report On Ticket Sales This Afternoon.

At the meeting of the Hop Committee this afternoon a final report will be made of the number of tickets sold to date. For this reason all men who have tickets out are requested to either be present at the meeting or else submit a written report. In order to give all possible chance to men who have not yet gotten tickets they will be on sale for the rest of the week in the Union, at 1 o'clock daily. They will also be on sale at the drill hall today and tomorrow, and Freshmen should bring money for tickets there.

The officers are going to work out a plan for a grand march after drill today, and it is planned that this shall be somewhat elaborate and a feature of the Hop. The number of upperclassmen who will attend are asked to give their names to C. H. Carpenter, L. H. Smart, and John Fairchild. Any Englishmen or Americans who are interested in maintaining the act of Congress of March 3, 1879. Subscription received will be acknowledged by postage at the rate of our cost on all the hearings.
