Benbow, 1913, in charge of the actual publication of this most valuable little volume.

The first part of the permanent news which has now been settled consists of Editorial and News Department, with E. B. Germain, 1912, in charge of the one, and D. F. Benbow, 1912, at the head of the other. The Assistant Editor is also a Junior, W. T. Tait, as are the other members, consisting of G. P. Capen, Treasurer, and C. G. Fallon, Assistant Business Manager.

The business department has already started the week with the work of soliciting the local advertising, and they have already received a large letter from the alumni whose names are those among the alumni who are in positions of importance and should be heard. The cost of the book will be in the vicinity of $1200, and there will be no revenue aside from the advertising end, it is very clear that this is a work of no small moment. Dear Sir,- I have just discovered the following letter from a not inconsiderable alumni, which is in the office, and in view of the fact that such a letter is about to be printed, I thought I might pass it on to you for publication. It is from a gentleman who has been a student of the Institute, and he is interested in the future of the Institute. I am sure that you will find it interesting and informative.

The advertising of the Institute is rather high both in keeping with the value of the book and the benefits which will accrue for the advertising. A full page, four by six inches in size, will demand $5.00; a half page, $2.50, a quarter page, $1.25, and a business card, of which there will be ten on a page, will cost $1.00. This is amply within the means of the prosperous alumni, and the required amount is due in the next week.

CROSS-COUNTRY MEN TO START TRAINING. Weeks Only Lie Before Inter-Class Race—Odds are Now Strong for Sophs.

Signs of spring are showing themselves and it will not be long before we see the cross-country teams at work. The Hare and Hounds' Club, which was organized for the purpose of aiding the long distance running of the Institute, has shown signs of life and elected their officers for the ensuing season. As yet the cross-country teams have not done any outside work on account of the bad weather, but they will run the course this long.

The Sophomores, from the present aspect, books as if they will walk away with the race from the Freshmen, as they have seven or eight men on the team. Capt. Nye is a 1914 man, as well as Sheldy, and in the hare and hounds race last fall the sophomore was far in the lead. It is up to the Freshmen to get out and usurp the Sophomores from their places.
