GALA PERFORMANCE
IN UNION TONIGHT

Musical Clubs and Tech Show Will Aid in Popular Concert.

Thanks to the perseverance of Mr. F. C. Weiss, 1912, who was in charge of the arrangements, the long awaited musical entertainment in the Union tonight will be crystallized into a fact. There has been seen sufficient evidence that all the Entertainment Committee, several features which seem to indicate that the affair will be an unqualified success. The acts and features making up the program will, in general, be musical, both vocal and instrumental. The Mandolin and Banjo Clubs will take a prominent part in the affair. The Glee Club Quartet will be on hand for their celebrated numbers. All of the concerts of the Musical Clubs thus far have been concerts charging admission. This will be a popular opportunity to hear the various branches of the clubs free.

Tech Show will contribute to the affair with several of the song hits of last year's Show. This portion of the entertainment will initiate the newcomers at the Institute into the excellence of the theatricals here. The remainder of the evening's entertainment will be done by a couple of students who will stage a justly celebrated stunt that is sure to be appreciated.

The difficulties in arranging the program have been many, but the Entertainment Committee will feel, if there is the desired interest taken in the performance tonight, that the trouble was worthwhile.

LOWELL INST. LECTURE

fell through and was assigned to the Army of the West, which was putting down a rising of the Royalist peasants in La Vendee. He went to Paris in the hope of having the order changed and overstay his furlough and lost his rank. Soon, however, there was an uprising against the government and Napoleon, by aiding the government at this critical moment, rose so in favor that he was given command of the army which was about to invade Italy.

In this invasion Napoleon began to show less republican zeal and more greed of conquest, and returned to France, not a Cincinnatus, but a Caesar. His change of spirit is shown by his remark when he visited the last house of Rousseau, "Better for France if this man had never been born."

work properly done by home and church.

In response to the question, "How can college men help?" he suggested that special probation officers can be appointed, and he thinks that such a thing may be possible here next year. He said that he would be glad to consult further in his office with any one interested.

N. E. I. A. A. NEWS

The N. E. I. A. A. cross-country race will be held on the Saturday afternoon of the I. C. A. A. A. race, and probably will be held in Springwood. The annual spring meet is to be held in Springwood this year as last. A new departure will be put in practice in this cross-country meeting. Instead of giving the three winning teams medals, each member of the winning team will be given gold medals; the members of the second team will get silver ones, and the third team bronze; also, instead of each college entering seven men, the first five scoring, each school will have eight entries and six will count.

THE "GLAD RAGS" and others not so "GLAD" that you have in mind for Spring wear should now have your attention.

Our counters are piled high with an almost unlimited stock of the latest designs. Your early call secures you the choicest patterns—early special discounts.
