Tickets May Be Reserved Soon—Annual Dinner to Be Held Next Monday

The spring concert and dance which is given every year by the combined musical clubs will take place this year on the 23rd or 24th of March. The concert will be given for the benefit of the student body and the money raised will be used to pay for the usual expenses of the society. During the interval, refreshments will be served, followed by a general good time.

Any who may desire to sit together during the concert should reserve seats as soon as possible. The reserved seats will be kept for the members, and the concert will begin at 8 o'clock, with an intermission after the eleventh dance. During the interval, refreshments will be served, followed by a general good time, and no additional tickets will be issued after the eleventh dance.

The concert will be held in the Common and will feature the following performers: A. H. Martin, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song; W. Barker, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song; and H. R. Crowell, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song. The concert will conclude with a grand finale, featuring the combined musical clubs, who will perform a selection from their repertoire.

The managers of the concert have decided that the concert will begin at 8 o'clock, with an intermission after the eleventh dance. During the interval, refreshments will be served, followed by a general good time. The concert will feature the following performers: A. H. Martin, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song; W. Barker, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song; and H. R. Crowell, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song. The concert will conclude with a grand finale, featuring the combined musical clubs, who will perform a selection from their repertoire.

The concert will be held in the Common and will feature the following performers: A. H. Martin, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song; W. Barker, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song; and H. R. Crowell, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song. The concert will conclude with a grand finale, featuring the combined musical clubs, who will perform a selection from their repertoire.

The concert will be held in the Common and will feature the following performers: A. H. Martin, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song; W. Barker, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song; and H. R. Crowell, who will sing a song in the style of a popular song. The concert will conclude with a grand finale, featuring the combined musical clubs, who will perform a selection from their repertoire.