WRESTLING MATCH

Institute Men in Good Condition to Win Bouts With Brown.

The Tech wrestling team which will challenge the Mass Poly and Barnard teams at Providence this afternoon is in excellent condition, and should give their opponents a tough time as they have often been out to stop. The men who have been selected to represent the Institute are: H. E. Crowell, ’15; C. A. Boggeit, ’15; H. W. W. W., ’14; W. H. W., ’12; and Smythe-Martin, ’13. Crowell will contest in the heavy weight class, and has done remarkable work as a comparatively new man. Boggeit has done remarkably excellent work for a comparatively new man. Bloggeit will probably be especially brought him more than one victory.

Other wrestlers. Smythe-Martin and Means are already known as the veterans of many battles, and their efforts will probably be especially instinctual person. Dr. Keith described C. Keith, medical inspector for the W. Eicke or C. Stevens, respectively. (Continued to Page 2.)

BIOLOGICAL MEETING.

At a meeting of the Biological Society yesterday afternoon Dr. Wallace G. Kerby, the State Board of Health, gave an address on "Tuberculosis. Mrs. Apparently Unexplained Causes." He related a number of interesting experiences, but the main points of the discussion were the importance of looking after the routine duties of a State medical inspector has little legal authority, his powers of publicity make him an influential person. Dr. Keith described C. Keith, medical inspector for the W. Eicke or C. Stevens, respectively. (Continued to Page 2.)

LECTURE ON AUSTRALIA.

Last night in the Union, L. H. Lehmier gave a lecture on Australia before a large number of members of the M. E. Society. Mr. Lehmier handled his subject in an especially interesting manner, and discussed the area and government of Australia, its people, languages and forms of amusement, and concluded with a discussion of the great economic possibilities there. The slides, which are oversize, make the Common Wealth of Australia, were unusually varied and beautiful.

SENIOR DINNER.

Preparations Commenced—Tickets Soon to Be on Sale.

The first meeting of the Dinner Committee was held last night, and preparations for the Senior dinner are being rapidly pushed forward. All of the hotels within a radius of half a mile of Rogers building will be utilized in the arrangements, and it is believed that at this early date the (Continued on Page 4.)
