GOLF CLUB CONSIDER OFFERS OF CLUBS

No Final Decision But Woodlawn and Wollaston Links Are Both Popular.

At the fourth meeting of the Golf Club, yesterday noon, President Rebori had appointed D. V. Mason, W. N. Holmes and F. A. Russell as a committee to take charge of tournaments and handicaps. Word has been received from the Woodlawn Golf Club in Auburndale, and the following terms are offered: Men from the Tech club may have the privilege of playing on their links from now until the first of June at ten dollars a member. The Wollaston Club's offer was made at one of the meetings and was balanced by a majority. The terms are five dollars a man for two partial days of the links, but this does not include Saturday afternoons, as the Woodlawn offer does. Both clubs have invited our men to examine their links and play on them, and several members are still in doubt as to which is the best, the final selection has been put off until the next meeting.

The clubs mentioned and the Allied Clubs make these extravagant low offers only to members of the Golf Club, but any man may purchase the privilege of playing the links by joining the club.

Arrangements have been made with a sporting concern to sell golf sticks and other goods to members of the club at a reduced rate, and the club will be fully equipped within a week. The time of the next meeting has been fixed as Wednesday, the third. A full attendance is expected.

EXCHANGE EXHIBIT.
The current exhibition in the display room of the Architectural department, in Pierce Building is a part of the Armour School of Technology. The work shown is that done by the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes of the Chicago school, and is of great interest. A Tech. man in charge.

STATE CLUB FORMING.
Men From New Jersey Attempt Formation of Brotherhood.

New Jersey men will gather in one of the small rooms in the upper part of the Union on Friday, at 3 o'clock, in an effort to form another State club.

They are now in the Institute a very large number of men who have come from this State, and since they are prominent in many lines of activity, the club should have one of the strongest organizations of any of the other clubs.

COLLEGE TRACK.
The University of Pennsylvania selected its track season in a very interesting way. Over 200 men reported to the veteran coach, Mike Murphy, for the first practice. The team will be headed by R. Burdick, who tied for first place in the high jump in the I. C. A. A. A. meet last spring. Murphy will coach the Penn men until after the relay carnival, and then will give much of his time to coaching the American Olympic team.

Only a small squad reported to Coach O'Connor at Brown for the first practice, but many of those who were new to track, and the veterans will be out later. Brown has several stars this session, and should place well in the N. E. I. C. A. meet. Piggott and Captains Murchie are sure point winners.
