MORE SPEAKERS FOR M. A. H. S. BANQUET

Major E. T. Cole and Mr. C. L. Reed have been secured in addition.

Major Edwin T. Cole, U. S. A., professor of military sciences at the Institute, and Mr. C. L. Reed, instructor in U. S. history at the Mechanical Arts High School, were both added to the list of speakers for the M. A. H. S. Club annual dinner next Wednesday night.

Some additional speakers were expected previously, and with their acceptance the complete entertainment is provided. The others who will speak are Mr. Frederick P. Fish, chairman of the board in charge of recommendations of changes in the high school's curriculum; and Dr. C. L. Par-

RIFLE TEAM MATCH.

Good Shooting by Members at Waltham Range.

Saturday, the rifle team went to Waltham to take part in a match with Company P of the Fifth Regiment. The latter failed to appear, and in-

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

The tennis tournament scheduled with Brown at Providence Saturday was called off on account of the tri-

ENNIS PROGRAMME.

E. L. Connolly, '09, who has been an assistant in the Freshman Physics since his gradua-

E. L. CONNOLLY LEAVES.

E. L. Connolly, '09, who has been as-}

CALCULATION.

MUSICAL CLUBS.

An Annual Banquet Held at Copley Square Tomorrow Night.

The Musical Clubs' banquet at which the clubs' annual elections will take place, will be held at the Copley Square Hotel on tomorrow evening, at three o'clock.

MUSICAL PROGRAMME.

The programme for this meeting will probably include the May singer, the military and patriotic songs of the period; and if the weather permits, a solo by a member of the Institute. The songs will be sung by the members of the chorus, and the programme will be followed by a fifty-minute dance to the music of the orchestra.

THE TECH SHOW.

The Tech Show, which is held on the last page of today's paper, will be of interest to all students and friends of the Institute.

SOPHOMORES LOSE TO DORCHESTER.

The Sophomore baseball team was defeated by Dorchester High Saturday by a score of 4 to 3, in a fast and close game. All of the home team's runs were the result of errors. Comber, playing third in the place of Bryant, playing position that for the first time, was unable to place first base accurately in his throws across the field and made four wild throws. Finally, the Freshman, played second for Comber and had one costly error scored against him. The entire team gave Swift their full support throughout the nine innings. Swift pitched the best game of his season, making seven strikeouts. He covered the in-

T. C. A. ELECTION.

Nominations for T. C. A. officers are due tomorrow noon. The polls will be open in the lobby from four to five o'clock. A business meeting will take place at five o'clock.