TECH VS. DARTMOUTH.

Tennis Team Will Meet New Hampshire Players Saturday.

On next Saturday afternoon the Tech tennis team will meet Dartmouth at Hanover. The entire team has not been made, but it will include Woodward, '13, Brigham, '12, and Bechdel, '12.

The meet with Brown, scheduled for last Saturday at Providence, has been postponed till May 22. The management is negotiating with Tufts for a tournament to be played at a future date.

As soon as the regular team is selected the men will meet in practice a team composed of old stars who are connected with the Institute. This team will probably include Parker, '12, and Blackard, '11.

While the entries in the spring tournament are as large as those of last spring, present indications point to a smaller entry list than in the fall tournament.

There will be no new entries in the doubles this spring as the schedule of games was not completed last fall. The remainder of these games will be played before the close of school. The challenge list of the doubles is composed, at present, of the following: Beckman, '12; Hardekem, '12; Brigham, '12; Woodard, '12; Vaubel, '12; Johnson, Los Angeles, '12; Woodard, '12.

This year's singles includes the following: Goodell, '12; Perdew, '12; Poste, '13; Allen, '13; Brown, '13; Bechdel, '12; and Fischer, '10.

The management desires all men interested to turn out for this week to train for the coming season.

Please send your script to the Secretary so that it will be of assistance in selecting Saturday's team.
