DARTMOUTH MEETS HARVARD SATURDAY

One of Closest Track Meets of Season Expected in Stadium Saturday.

One of the best track meets of the season is promised when Dartmouth meets Harvard in the Stadium Saturday. Last year Dartmouth surprised the athletic world by winning Harvard, and now it is sure to be a success. This year they go into the meet with even better men than they had last year, and the Crimson athletes hope they will have to do their best to win.

The hundred yard dash is sure to be done in ten seconds, with Russell of Dartmouth running the national record and Pell of Harvard. Gardner of Harvard looks to be the fastest man in the event. Batchelder of Harvard is expected to take the first place in the event. Batchelder of Harvard and Whitney of Dartmouth will contest the fourth spot. Harvard has the better broad jumpers, but is not so strong in the pole vault. Gardner is doing the hurdles in fast shape and may win both the timber and the events for the Cambridge team.
