Robert W. Weeks, who has been the business manager of the Shop this year, has been chosen general manager of Tech Show, 1913. Weeks comes from Washington, where he was active in the Western High School of the city. He was one of the editors of the school paper, on the debating team and first lieutenant of the Cadet Corps.

Here at the Institute he has also been a member of the track and basketball teams. He has played on the 1913 football team, was a member of the basketball team, and, as a member of the track team, has been a member of the track team.

The committee expects to have one or perhaps two live speakers, to remind the men of the more pleasant sides of the Institute. They will be starting. It is planned to make this banquet a more successful one than it has been in the past.

Three of the members of the Institute have already been elected to the Finance Committee, and the members of the committee are expected to be present at the banquet.

The committee expects to have one or perhaps two live speakers, to remind the men of the more pleasant sides of the Institute. They will be starting. It is planned to make this banquet a more successful one than it has been in the past.

A letter from Maj. Briggs, expressing appreciation, was read. A letter from Maj. Briggs, expressing appreciation, was read.