Progressive Club

Organization Committee to Form Constitution—Talk Well Received.

Mr. Russell A. Wood found a crowd of about one hundred and fifty men in the Union waiting for him to speak on the opportunities for the Progressive Club to show its full interest in the party. He proposed that men who were not able to vote this fall write at least fifty letters to the professor while those who were living here last April, and are over 31, may vote for the candidate of the Progressives.

The meeting nominated the following men to form a committee to organize the club: C. A. Sabin, secretary, the other members being O. R. Freeman, M. J. Hayden, J. D. For- mosa, L. T. Tubbs of the T. C. A.; H. P. Kennan, M. A. Ottinger, T. A. Pfeffer, A. C. Wilkerson, F. L. Frost, and A. B. Massimilano. He asked the members who were willing to do this work to give their names to Sabin, asking thirty men signed up to do this work.

The meeting adjourned the following men to form a committee to organize the club: C. A. Sabin, secretary, the other members being O. R. Freeman, M. J. Hayden, J. D. Formosa, L. T. Tubbs of the T. C. A.; H. P. Kennan, M. A. Ottinger, T. A. Pfeffer, A. C. Wilkerson, F. L. Frost, and A. B. Massimilano. He asked the members who were willing to do this work to give their names to Sabin, asking thirty men signed up to do this work.

The meeting adjourned for the present occasion Banjo Club-Thursday, Oct. 10; Peace and Love Club—Thursday, Oct. 10; and Heslic. These men held a short meeting after the talk, and they will meet again in the Union Monday at 7 o'clock.

Musical Clubs.

First Meeting to Be Held Tuesday, at 4 P.M.—Open to All.

At a quarter past four next Tuesday afternoon the first meeting of the Students' Clubs will be held in the Union to discuss plans for the coming season, which promises to be the biggest that the clubs have ever had.

This meeting is an open one and all men interested in the clubs in any way, especially new men, are earnestly urged to be present. The man- sions of the separate clubs will outline their plans, and the qualifications for membership will be fully explained. The number of men to be admitted this year has been greatly increased, so that anyone who has any musical ability whatever stands a good chance of making one or the other of the clubs.

The trials will be held next week, Wednesday and Thursday, as follows:

Mandolin Club—Wednesday, Oct. 9, at 4 P.M.
Banjo Club—Thursday, Oct. 10, at 4 P.M.
Glee Club—Thursday, Oct. 10, at 4:15 P.M.

Institute Committee.

First Meeting on October 8th—Important Affairs Arise.

At the first meeting of the Executive Committee of the Institute, yesterday, it was decided to hold the first meeting of the Institute Committee on Tuesday, October 8, at 4:30 P.M., in Room 8, Eng. C. The purpose of the meeting is the same as last year.

At the meeting Tuesday will be discussed methods of raising money for the support of athletics. A report of the "Concerning M. I. T."

Board will be heard, and ideas will be suggested for the adoption of uniform athletic plans for the year.

Towels.

The distinct improvement in sanitation conditions around the school ever since the thru new last year is a matter that the student body might well stimulate itself upon.

Whoever was responsible for the placing of towels in the various lavatories throughout the Institute deserves the thanks of us all, and from the many complaints we have heard enter we judge that telepathic waves of gratitude must be reaching him constantly.

We hope the good work will be continued, and several other things that need rectification will soon be the object of the same attention that has attended so excellently to our ablity

Institution Committee.

First Meeting on October 8th—Important Affairs Arise.

At the first meeting of the Executive Committee of the Institute, yesterday, it was decided to hold the first meeting of the Institute Committee on Tuesday, October 8, at 4:30 P.M., in Room 8, Eng. C. The purpose of the meeting is the same as last year.

At the meeting Tuesday will be discussed methods of raising money for the support of athletics. A report of the "Concerning M. I. T.

Board will be heard, and ideas will be suggested for the adoption of uniform athletic plans for the year.

The committee will also consider the standing of the "Varsity" basketball team.

(Continued next page.)