CATHOLIC CLUB

First Meeting Comes Tonight—Reception to New Men.

The Catholic Club of the Institute holds its reception for new men and its first meeting of the year tonight in the Union. The meeting will be given in a manner that will be purely social in character. The society has not provided any speaker from out of doors, but instead is going to have light refreshments.

The club is now in its ninth year, and it is noted for its annual dance, and for the way in which it unites the Catholics at the Institute socially. The membership of the society has increased largely over what it has been in the past, and every year it shows an increase. The officers this year include E. W. Brewster, E. W. Baker, and T. H. Witt, H. F. Merrill, A. H. Witt; for Secretary, T. H. Taylor, C. H. Ober; for Treasurer, H. H. Crowell, E. F. Rattow, H. D. Sabin; for Clerk, W. F. Atten, T. J. H. Byrde, H. L. Lomb; for one of the representatives to the Institute Committee, A. A. Hill. For P. A. Mackentep, H. A. Mlayer, W. R. Richmond; for Secretary, T. H. Taylor, C. H. Ober; for Treasurer, H. H. Crowell, E. F. Rattow, H. D. Sabin; for Clerk, W. F. Atten, T. J. H. Byrde, H. L. Lomb; for one of the representatives to the Institute Committee, A. A. Hill.

The first yearly business will be the election of officers for the coming year. The following men have submitted their names for the offices of the society: President, E. W. Brewster, E. W. Baker, and T. H. Witt; for Secretary, T. H. Taylor, C. H. Ober; for Treasurer, H. H. Crowell, E. F. Rattow, H. D. Sabin; for Clerk, W. F. Atten, T. J. H. Byrde, H. L.
