SECOND ATHLETIC MEET SATURDAY

Last of the Series Before the Fall Meets Promises Good Racing.

On Saturday afternoon the second handlining meet will be held at the Field at 2.30. This meet is for all athletes who have not yet won "T" and "W" in any one sport. The handlining will be judged by Captains Germain and will be based entirely on the work of the men in the first meet and the subsequent efforts at the Fieldhands. The winners in the first contest receiving handlings such as will result in very close contests on Saturday. The original idea was to have four of these meets, but last Saturday's holiday eliminated one, and the points will be added up at the end of this week. The winners in each event will receive, as before, ribbons, and the greatest point holders at the meet event for the two contests will receive medals.

The Fall handicap meet, for which the preliminary meet were held, will be run off the following Sunday. In order that the handicapping for this meet will be of the fairest, and so as to ensure close races. Coach Kinney urges that all men not yet entered for this second meet, to be held Saturday, October 19, at 2 o'clock, in the Field. Details of the meet will be announced at that time.

CONCERNING M. I. T.

The new edition of the handbook, containing the M. I. T. which has been in preparation for some time, will arrive at the Institute in a few days. The contents will be announced later.

TECHNICAL ELECTION

J. L. Long has been appointed Assistant Business Manager of the 1914 season, and will take the place of D. M. Kelly, who has left the Institute.

PROGRESSIVES INVITE ALL TO FREE SMOKER

Richard Washburn Child and Professor George S. Haven to Speak.

Tonight, at the Union, the Progressive Club of M. I. T. will give what they hope will be one of the biggest meetings of the term. The Men's Union has been secured for the speakers, Professor George S. Haven, who has been one of the most progressive洄vatives of the Father of the Institute, and Mr. Richard Washburn Child, the author of "Progressivism," will address the audience. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock and will be based entirely on Progressive ideas and convictions, and such as to insure close races, the men in Course XIV feel that they will receive medals.

NINETEEN THIRTEEN BALLOT IS COMPLETED

Names of Twenty-Five Men to Appear on Class Ballot to be Issued Next Tuesday.

The 1913 Class ballot containing the names of the nominees for the various offices has been completed. The ballots will be issued on October 30th, due on November 1st, and a copy will be sent to every member of the class.

The ballot is as follows:
Vice-President—A. S. Pomeroy, R. B. Sparrow, R. B. Kenealy.
Treasurer—B. D. enry, R. E. tangen, B. L. MacDonald, P. C. Wycliff.
Secretary—R. E. Currier, H. D. Gillett, J. D. Schuman, R. B. Kenealy.

the Ionic Society. and such as to insure close races, the men in Course XIV feel that they will receive medals.

Secondly, to have some of these meet, but last Saturday's holiday eliminated one, and the points will be added up at the end of this week. The winners in each event will receive, as before, ribbons, and the greatest point holders at the meet event for the two contests will receive medals.

The Fall handicap meet, for which the preliminary meet were held, will be run off the following Sunday. In order that the handicapping for this meet will be of the fairest, and so as to ensure close races. Coach Kinney urges that all men not yet entered for this second meet, to be held Saturday, October 19, at 2 o'clock, in the Field. Details of the meet will be announced at that time.

CONCERNING M. L. T.

The new edition of the handbook, containing the M. I. T. which has been in preparation for some time, will arrive at the Institute in a few days. The contents will be announced later.

TECHNICAL ELECTION

J. L. Long has been appointed Assistant Business Manager of the 1914 season, and will take the place of D. M. Kelly, who has left the Institute.

PROGRESSIVES INVITE ALL TO FREE SMOKER

Richard Washburn Child and Professor George S. Haven to Speak.

Tonight, at the Union, the Progressive Club of M. I. T. will give what they hope will be one of the biggest meetings of the term. The Men's Union has been secured for the speakers, Professor George S. Haven, who has been one of the most progressive洄vatives of the Father of the Institute, and Mr. Richard Washburn Child, the author of "Progressivism," will address the audience. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock and will be based entirely on Progressive ideas and convictions, and such as to insure close races, the men in Course XIV feel that they will receive medals.

NINETEEN THIRTEEN BALLOT IS COMPLETED

Names of Twenty-Five Men to Appear on Class Ballot to be Issued Next Tuesday.

The 1913 Class ballot containing the names of the nominees for the various offices has been completed. The ballots will be issued on October 30th, due on November 1st, and a copy will be sent to every member of the class.

The ballot is as follows:
Vice-President—A. S. Pomeroy, R. B. Sparrow, R. B. Kenealy.
Treasurer—B. D. enry, R. E. tangen, B. L. MacDonald, P. C. Wycliff.
Secretary—R. E. Currier, H. D. Gillett, J. D. Schuman, R. B. Kenealy.