WEAKS, GEN. MANAGER, CHOSEN FOR TECH SHOW

Business Manager of Last Year's Show Picked to Succeed H. W. Woehling.

Robert W. Weakly, 1912, Business Manager of last Year's Show, has been chosen General Manager to succeed H. W. Woehling, 1912. Weakly first began Show work in 1914. He has at that time Freshmen assistant under J. W. Wilson, 1911, and assistant under H. W. Woehling, 1912. This year he was Business Manager, and almost entirely through his efforts the program advertising was increased one hundred per cent.

Weakly entered the Institute from the Western High School, Washington, D. C. He has been on his class football team, on the cross-country team, and he is a member of Osius and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

General Manager Weakly hopes to have the entire cooperation of the athletic body in the show this year. He mentions the following opportuni ties for the expression of all varieties of talent— anybody to be written the successful author of which is to receive the $10 dollar prize offered by the Institute Committee—the orchestra, which is to be connected with the show this year, and the depart ments which need assistant managers.

FRESHMEN PRACTICE.

Playing of Freshmen Improves—Murphy Runs Team Smoothly.

In a practice game between the Freshmen football team and the Bos ton Y. M. C. A., yesterday, one point Field, practically the same team which was beaten by the Sophomore last Saturday, 25 to 0, was in the lineup against the Freshmen, with the exception of the backfield, which was far heavier than that of the football team. All the prospects of beating the Rock Island Team, which was good dope.

Guess I'll have to see "Old Burke the Tailor" pretty soon.

That big brother of mine told me to be sure to call on him at 18 School St., or to see Tom Hayes at 143 Washington St., as soon as I landed in Boston, and the bunch here tell me that was good dope.

MEDALS FOR GOLFERS.

Anthemlic Golf Links Chosen—Tour Tournament to Begin.

Meeting of the Golf Club was held in Rogers St. yesterday, at 1 P. M., with President Howlett presiding. The Athletic Association has decided to award medals in the following manner: A gold medal to the tournament winner, a silver one for the best green score, and a bronze one for the best net score.

The Association has been successful in getting privileges at the Anthemlic Golf Club, Newton, one of the best classes around Boston. This tournament will begin as soon as the handshakes are arranged. The handicap are assigned according to the first three scores made on nine holes. Those who do not have handicap records will get handicap. To make this tournament more interesting the Association wishes all men who can plan golf to come out. The easiest way to get into the links is to go at Trinity Place for Tournament.

There are six thousand students enrolled at Wisconsin University this year.
