T. C. A. WANTS MEN FOR SOCIAL SERVICE WORK

Many Openings for Tech Men—Great Variety of Work in Spare Time

The Technology Christian Association is beginning an active canvass to get men to take up some form of social service. Calls and letters are coming in at the office for men to help in all sorts of altruistic work. If the T. C. A. sent a man to fill every place that is open to Tech men, the number of engagements would probably mount up into the hundreds.

These are in no small way the possibilities in the position to satisfy any man. Teaching English to immigrants, giving talks on scientific, historical, religious or other subjects to boys. "Big brother" work, in connection with the Boston Juvenile Court and elsewhere, organizing and leading boys' clubs in communities; the possibility of forming clubs and organizing these from the foundation, is one of the fruits of vision, each with its own committee in the T. C. A., offer a multitude of opportunities.

Just now the boys' club work is in especial need of men. Last Thursday at the committee in the T. C. A., offer a multitude of opportunities.

The committee in charge of this work plan to see as many men as possible personally and to tabulate them from whom their interests will involve them. Every man who will join the committee will be assured of an opportunity of work, and no better treat than a Moore's Non-leakable. "TOBIN BRONZE" (Trade Mark Registered)
